

CPS 530 Lab 2

Basim Khan

While doing this lab, I wanted to create something that reflects the artistic side of my mind. Using colors, fonts, images, and design to show creativity. This page is more than just text on a screen, it's a way for me to express how I see the world, blending my interests and personality into a kind of artistic style.

My Page:

Conclusion:

The lab was not too bad, the only problem I had was trying to make the container with a different background image than the rest of my page. I also got stuck trying to position everything where it is one by one without the page looking unorganised.
